How to get here

by car

No5 Chambers is best approached from the A38(M). Remain on the expressway over the first flyover and on to St Chad's Queensway. Once over the flyover bear immediately off to the left hand lane and take the second turning into the Thistle Hotel car park. This is the nearest parking to Chambers. Alternatively carry on down Whittall Street and turn right at the top. You are now on Steelhouse Lane, Fountain Court is on your right hand side. There are a number of parking meters in this area.

No5 Chambers is situated within easy walking distance of all Birmingham's major stations. For London Midland trains or Chiltern services, Snow Hill station is on the doorstep. For other local and countrywide rail services, including quick and frequent trains to Birmingham International (Airport), please use New Street station.

Disabled access

Conference rooms within our Birmingham office are all located on the ground floor and are accessible for wheelchair users. We have automated external doors and an intercom system which is positioned within easy reach. For clients with hearing impairments we can offer portable hearing aid systems for use throughout Chambers, and for visually impaired clients we can offer an escort upon arrival at Chambers. Please advise us prior to your visit, should you require assistance.
